

Steve Schulein, Vice President of Drayage and Industry Relations for National Retail Transportation, Inc. oversees all of the company's drayage, intermodal, maritime and port related issues.

Before joining NRT, Schulein served as General Manager North America for COSCO, and as Senior Vice President of Operations for Puerto Rico Marine Management, Inc ("Navieras"), which was the leading carrier in the Puerto Rican/US trade and other Caribbean ports with a fleet comprised of containerships and Ro/Ro vessels. He also served as a consultant for major port authorities.

Today Schulein serves on the Executive Board of Directors for the Bi-State Trucking Association and is a member of the Council on Port Performance (CPP) which includes the major stakeholders in the Port of New York/New Jersey.
